Harper's Bazar.

ILLUSTRATED.

HARPER'S BAZAR is the only paper in the world that combines the choicest literature and the most art illustrations with the latest fashions and methods of household adornment. Its weekly illustrations and descriptions of the newest Paris and New York styles, with its useful pattern sheets, supplements and cut patterns, by enabling ladies to make their own dresses, save many times the cost of the subscription. Its papers on cooking, the management of servants, and house-keeping in its various details are eminently practical. Much attention is given to the interesting topic of social etiquette and its illustrations of art needle-work are acknowledged to be unequalled. Its literary merit is of the highest character, and the unique character of its numerous pictures has won for it the name of the American Punch.

1886.

Harper's Young People.

AN ILLUSTRATED WEEKLY.

The position of Harper's YOUNG PEOPLE as the leading weekly periodical for young readers is well established. The publishers open up pages to provide the best and most attractive reading and illustrations. The serial and short stories have strong dramatic interest, while they are wholly free from what is pernicious or vulgarly sensational. The papers on natural history and science, travel, and the like, are by writers whose names give the best assurance of accuracy and value. Illustrated papers on athletic sports, games, and pastimes give full information on these subjects. There is nothing else about it for the price.

An epitome of everything that is attractive and desirable in juvenile literature—Dutton Courier, "The Saturday" and "The Sunday" are good things to the boys and girls in every family which it visits—Bradford Evans.

It is wonderful in the wealth of pictures, information, and interest—A. Christiane Adams, N. Y.
